

JANUARY 2016

Happy New Year

And a great big hello to our new children

John Mace, Alastair Burdon, Harrison Andrews and Lydia Watts

We hope you all enjoyed the Nativity Play, I am sure you will agree that the children were fantastic. There are still photos available of the children in their outfits if anyone is interested in purchasing them (speak to any of the staff who will be able to sort this out for you).

So 2015 was a good year for the School we achieved a brilliant result from our Ofsted Inspection which has paved a way forward for us. We thank all the Committee who have supported the school in helping us achieve this good result and have tirelessly given their time and amazing energy in fundraising for the school

Hats off to you, we thank you

Our development themes for this term are:

Week 11th January Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Week 18th January Understanding the World

Week 25th January Maths

Week 1st February Expressive Arts and Design

Week 9th February Literacy

Please look on the notice board outside for activities planned per week.

We will be holding Parents Evening on Wednesday 20th January 2016 from 7.30pm onwards. This year we have decided to do reserved time slots so that you do not have to wait around. The reservation form will be displayed at School prior to the 20th. Lynsey Barnard our fab Chair will be wandering about in her Speech and Language guise so if you have any concerns re your child please feel free to grab her for a chat. If you cannot make this date do not worry we can always find some time to talk to you at another time.

NEW FOR 2016

With the new Church Hall being built we can now open on a Friday afternoon if anyone is interested – please let one of the staff know of your interest. When we have enough children interested we can start to include this session.

And

After the Easter Break – April 2016 we will be welcoming 2 years olds to join our Preschool - If you are interested or know anyone who would be interested please email us or tell a member of staff

With best wishes and a very Happy New Year

Linda Zena Julie Julie Michelle and Lisa